

We're growing!

Our flexible employment terms suit individuals with commitments or seeking to balance this role with other aspects of their life, key points include:

- Casual engagement
- Project-based terms
- Suited to individual strengths & expertise
- Joint commitment to balance life needs

Thanks to a loyal client base & repeat work, due to high quality service, Turning Point Consulting is growing

To ensure we continue to deliver to business needs, we are seeking interest from individuals who can:

- Be consultative with people of diverse backgrounds, experiences & interests.
- Engage an audience with energy & enthusiasm, for both the content & the group's needs.
- Deliver with confidence to large (over 200) & small (1-30) group presentations & workshops
- Ethically coach individuals around career, personal & professional opportunities.
- Be agile to changing priorities & requirements in all settings.
- Provide evidence of working with students to adults in a positive learning environment.
- Contribute valuable ideas & insights to our business requirements & our client's needs within industry & education.

To be successful you must have:

- Relevant qualifications in Human Resources, Education or a related field.
- 3-5 year's professional experience within a related position.
- Designed various learning programs for various audiences with review & improvement.
- Consulted at a professional standard with individuals in a career or coaching environment.
- Been part of the recruitment process to maintain currency with hiring processes.
- Worked in an independent work setting, managing your timelines & motivation to ensure prompt response to enquiries & business needs.
- Experience working with profiling systems & reports, ideally Strengths Finders ©, Strengths Quest ©, Morrisby © or Career Avenues.

Please note we are recruiting for future roles & so are looking for those considering a move to flexible employment casual contract, best suited to those seeking part-time casual work.

Working with diverse faiths, beliefs & cultures essential as is travel around Sydney with occasional regional or interstate trips.

For confidential discussion or more information kindly contact
Kathryn Taylor on 0478 570 707 or at kathryn@turningpointconsulting.com.au